CHESS TOURNAMENT NOW IN 5TH ROUND

Belson Leads Match at This Stage-Martin Is Second and Goodman Third

EXAMPLES ARE GIVEN

By CHARLES CROMPTON

The premier tournament for the Toronto chess championship ad-Toronto chess championship advanced into the fifth round last Tuesday night at the Toronto Chess club and two matches were com-pleted and one adjourned.

Frank Goodman defeated George Underhill by a systematic demoli-tion of the latter's Dutch defence from of the latters Dutch defence formation, while Harry Belson went into first place by defeating D. Loevstrand. Bob Martin, defending champion, played a Ruy Lopez against Keith Kerns and early sacrified. ficed a pawn for attacking purposes. Kerns fought back resolutely, however, and at adjournment still had the extra pawn and a safe position besides. In the two games held over from the fourth round, Martin defeated Underhill when the latter missed a promising opportunity and Belson and Crompton played to a draw in a well-contested effort.

The standing to date is as follows:

Belson, 3½-1½; Martin, 3-1; Goodman, 2-1; Crompton, 1½-2½; Kerns, 1-0; Underhill and Locystrand, 0-3. In the major tournament games played at the Valleyview C.C. last Tuesday night the results were as follows: Mcikle 0, Blumberg 1; Good 0, Ainsworth 1; Barr 12, Loeb 12; Melrose 0, Macdonald 1; Weston 0, Bowman I.

A lively boys' rapid transit tourncy was held at the Queen City C.C. last Saturday afternoon, with 12 budding experts lined up in two groups of six, with the winners playing off. J. Shapiro emerged the winner after defeating E. Rover in the finale. the finals.
