War Allowances Given Employees Who Volunteer

Employees of the Great-West Life Assurance Company who volunteer for active service will benefit under a plan which includes monthly allowances and maintenance of their pension and group insurance benefits. The company will make every effort to keep open positions for those employees who leave the company for war service. In addition, the company will continue full salary for one month and afterward the full difference between salary and army pay and allowances in the case of married men. Special consideration will be given to single men with dependents.

Confer Honorary Degrees On Three Churchmen

The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was given three distinguished churchmen last night by Trinity College in a service in the college chapel. Right Rev. A. F. Winnington-Ingram, formerly Bishop of London, was unable to be present, due to the war, and was given his degree in absentia. Very Rev. Spencer H. Elliott, dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, B.C., and Archbishop J. H. H. Coleman of Kingston were given their degrees by Archbishop T. Owen, Primate of Canada. Two students of the college, Rev. Dr. K. S. Evans and Rev. R. L. Seaborn, were given their B.D. degrees.

Defense Minister Thanks Imperial War Veterans

A letter from the Minister of Defense, thanking the Imperial War Veterans' Association for their offer to serve Canada in wartime, was read last night at a meeting of the organization. Three categories of service have been suggested: formation of a battalion for overseas service, guard duty and employment in munitions plants.
