

Sir Richard Moon

The Globe and Mail (1936-); Feb 24, 1961; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 4

Sir Richard Moon

Sir Richard Moon, 60, business manager of Robinson Plays and Costumes Ltd., died yesterday.

He was a grandson of Richard Moon, created baronet in 1887 when president of the London and North Western Railway, and succeeded to the title in 1951. Sir Richard had been living in Canada since 1923. He ranched in the Canadian west before coming to Toronto 20 years ago. He leaves his wife, Lady Gertrude Moon, and two daughters, Mrs. Beverley McPhail of Los Angeles and Mrs. Lydia Little of Vancouver.